STEM WALL

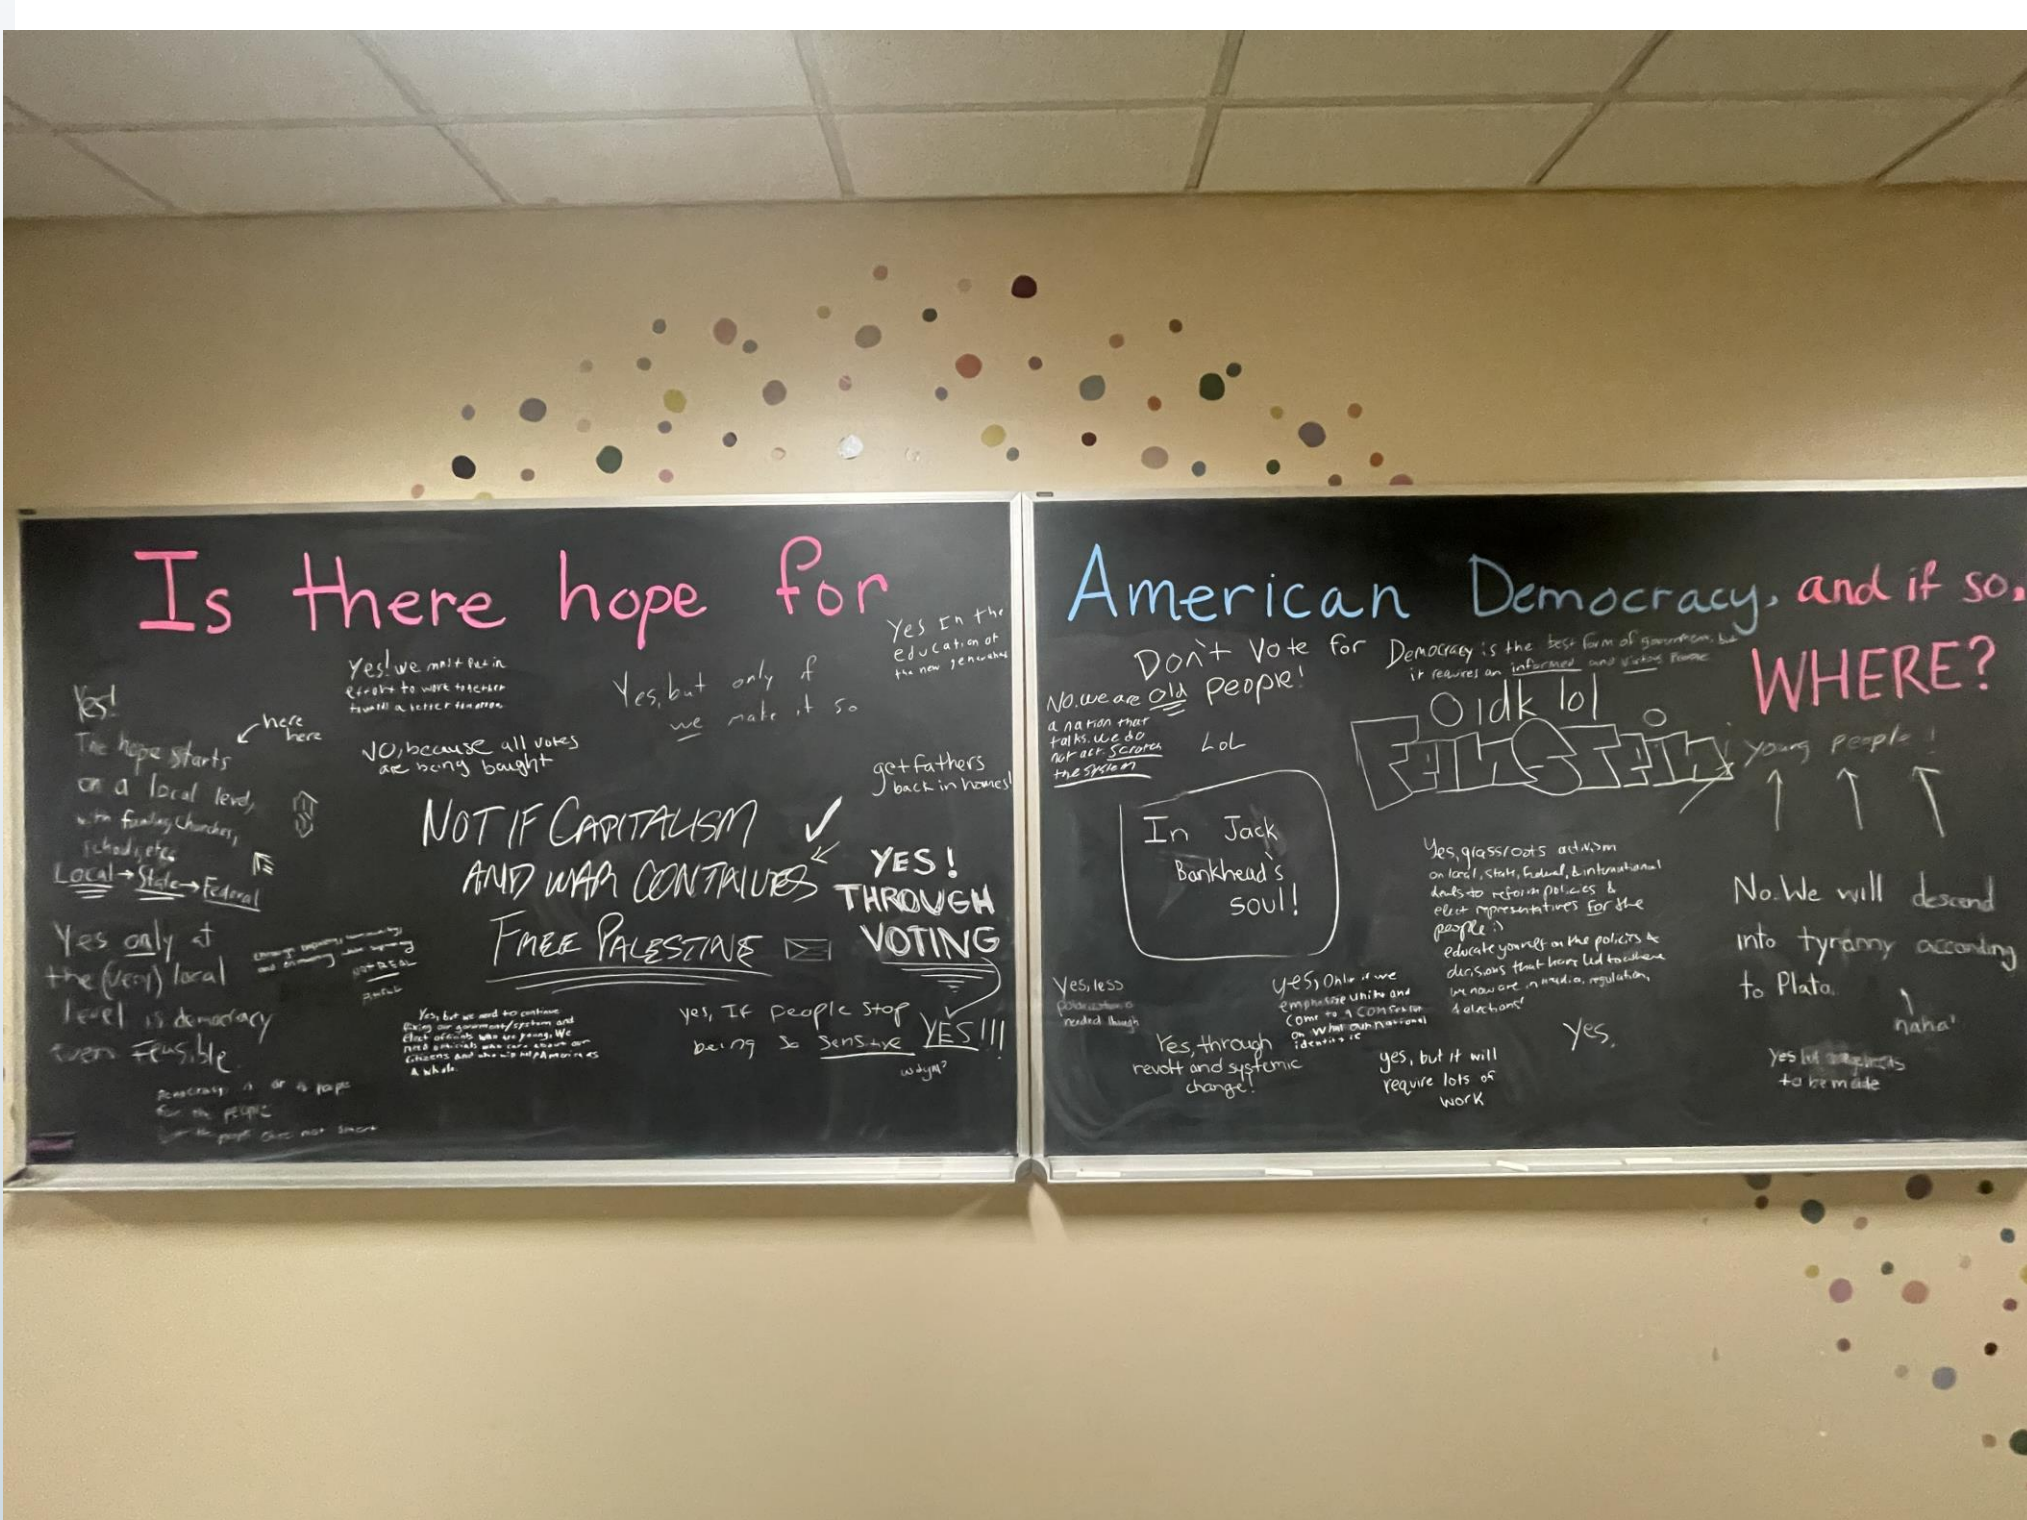

WE, AS THE STEM DID WALL, WILL PROVIDE THE PC COMMUNITY THROUGH THE PROMOTION OF INCLUSIVITY, DIALOGUE, AND THE FOSTERING OF FACULTY-STUDENT RELATIONSHIPS.

CREATE THREE EVENTS A SEMESTER THAT PROMOTE POSITIVITY AND ENGAGEMENT TOWARDS CIVIL DISCOURSE

Our Mission and Purpose

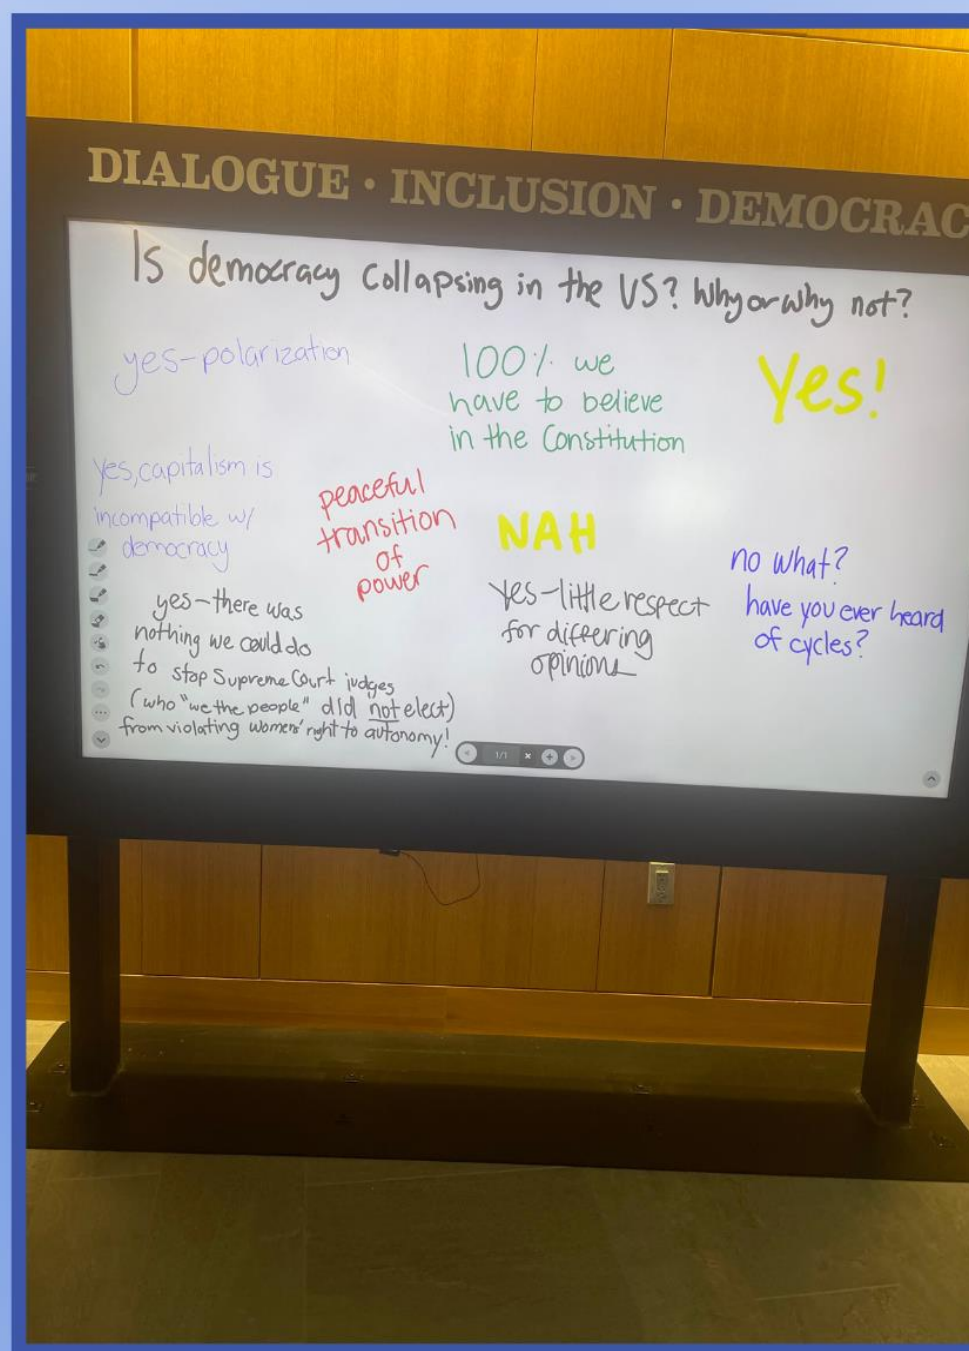

The DID Lab is committed to community-based public dialogue that brings people together for mutual understanding, collaborative work that is shaped by our experience organizing the PC-Smith Hill Annex. A 1,000 square foot storefront property located in the adjacent Smith Hill neighborhood, the Annex was founded as a “civic space” with the goal of “fostering conversation in a wide range of configurations between members of the campus and community, with longer-term goals of greater mutual understanding and opportunities for collaboration.”

FEINSTEIN WALL

The Feinstein wall is focused on bringing people together around what is one of the (physical) centers of campus, the Feinstein center. Due to its hybrid nature, the Feinstein wall serves every student at PC and we tackle all issues on our frequently utilized board.

RYAN BUSINESS CENTER DID WALL
