

- +
- •

Father John LaFarge: The Fight for Interracial Reform and Fear of Secularism

John W. Perry

Biography

---

- Born in Newport, RI on February 13th, 1880.
  - Graduated from Harvard in 1901.
  - Entered University of Innsbruck in Austria in 1901.
  - Became a Jesuit in 1905.
-

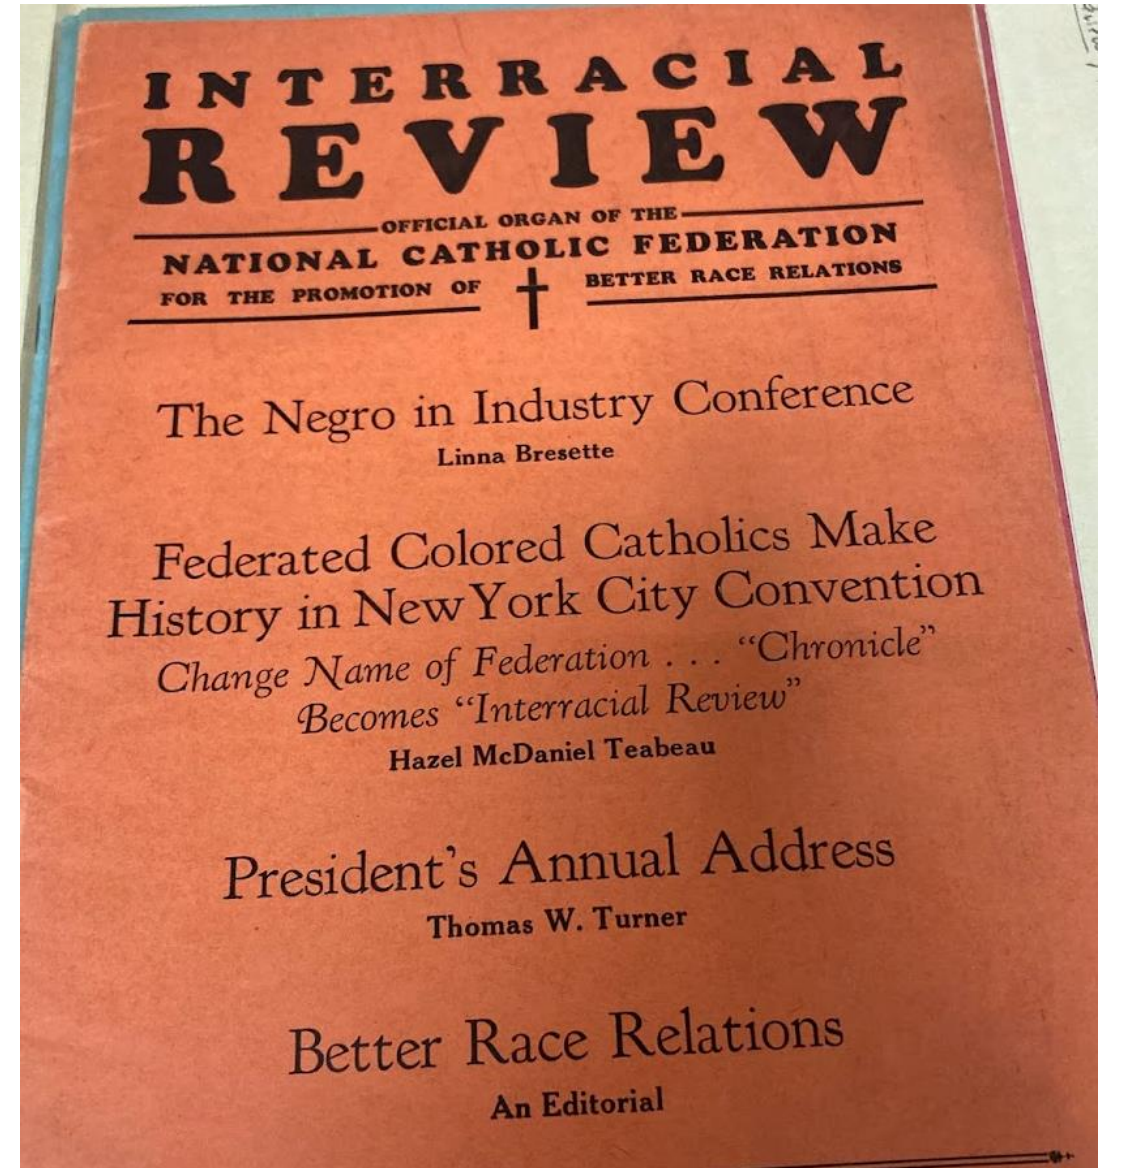

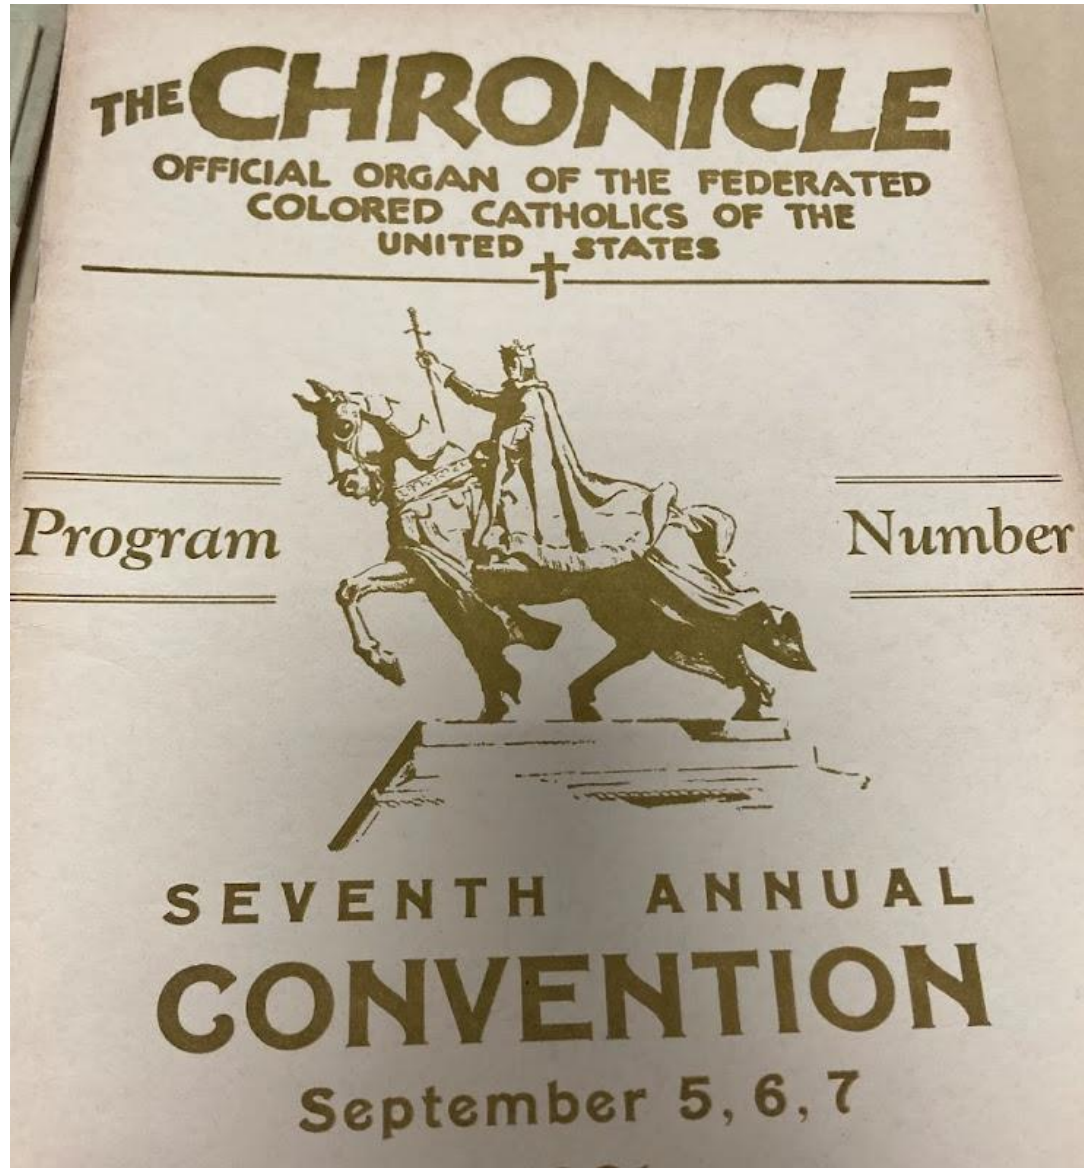

Used in Interracial Review, Found in Catholic Interracial Council Archives, Catholic University of America.

Used in John LaFarge, "Manner is Ordinary."

Used in John LaFarge, "Manner is Ordinary."

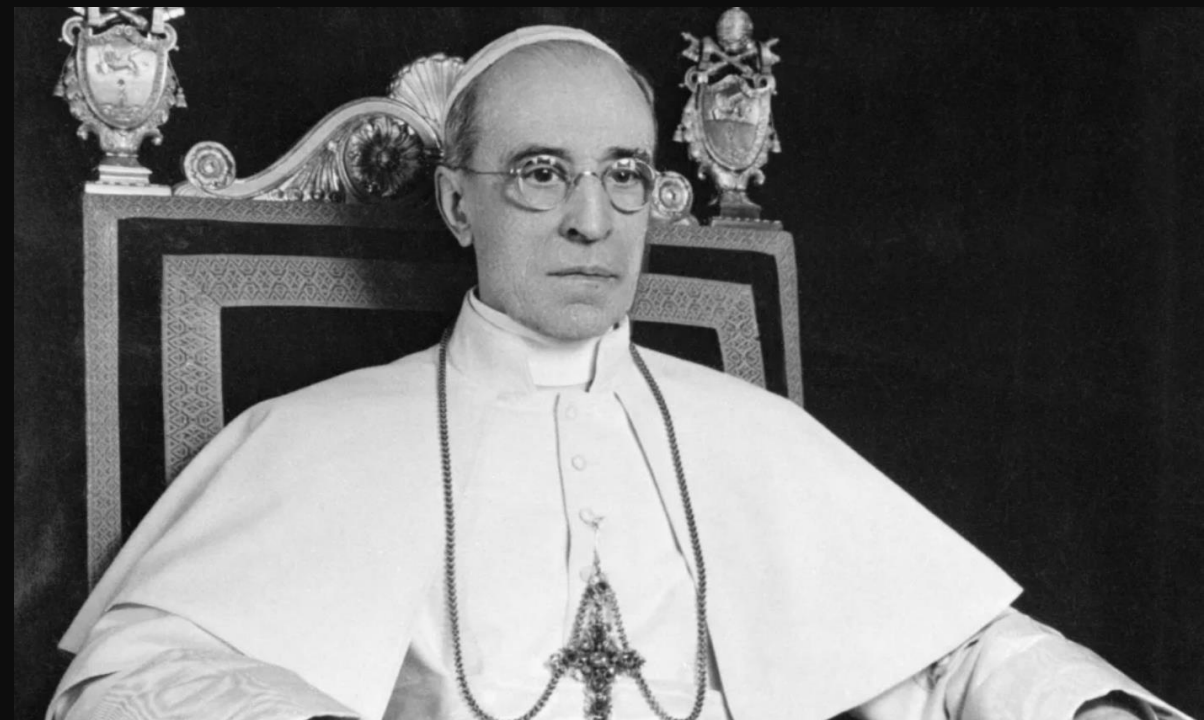

Both found in Catholic Interracial Council Archives, Catholic University of America.

Humani Generis Unitas

---

- "Morality which is called natural, and which is the basis of Christian morality, has to permeate human society in its every cellar foundation, from the basis which is the family, up to the full pacifying fulfillment - the family of nations." - Fr. John LaFarge

---

Top Picture: Found in "Discussing the 'Pope's Last Crusade,'" America.

Bottom Picture: Found in "Wartime Pope Pius XII Probably Knew about Holocaust Early On, Letters Show," CNN.

Interracial Review

---

- "All of the suffering, maltreatment, lack of opportunity, civil discrimination and segregation which the Negro suffers in his homeland are pointed out to him as reasons for subscribing to the principle of the Soviet nation." - Fr. John LaFarge

---

Top picture: Used in John LaFarge, "Manner is Ordinary."
Bottom picture: Used in Interracial Review, Found in Catholic Interracial Council Archives, Catholic University of America.

A weekly forum meeting at the Catholic Interracial Center, Vesey Street, New York City.

founders of Interracial Council of New York who on its board have received five citations for their active service as president and vice-president of the Council. Seated
in the front row,
left to right, are
Dr. Edward J. Conroy, Fr. John LaFarge, and Maurice
J. Carroll.
Standing behind them are Richard
L. Stevens, and

Thank you for Your Time

